VOLUME CIX.--NO. 79. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 1, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Pierce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the stomach is the most vulnerable organ out of the prize ring as well as in it. We protect our heads, throats, feet and lungs, but the stomach we are utterly indifferent to, until disease finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you protect yourself in your most vulnerable spot. "Golden Medical" Discovery cures "weak stomach," indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, bad, thin and impure blood and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" has a specific curative effect upon all mucous surfaces and hence cures catarrh, no matter where located or what stage it may have reached. In Nasal Catarrh it is well to cleanse the passages with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy fluid while using the "Discovery" as a constitutional remedy. Why the "Golden Medical Discovery" cures catarrhal diseases, as of the stomach, bowels, bladder and other pelvic organs will be plain to you if you will read a booklet of extracts from the writings of eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients and explaining their curative properties. It is mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. This booklet gives all the ingredients entering into Dr. Pierce's medicines from which it will be seen that they contain not a drop of alcohol, pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead.

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser will be sent free, paper-bound, for 21 one-cent stamps, or cloth-bound for 31 stamps. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

THE POPULISTS AGAIN.

A convention of the "People's Party," but which is destined to assume the name of the old "Populist Party," will be held in St. Louis tomorrow.

The party will stand for all that was represented by the populist party in past year. It will, however, receive an infusion of new blood from the affiliation of the Federated People's Party Club, the American Monetary League, the National Provisional Committee and other reform organizations.

The assertion is positively made that there will be no affiliation with any political body which does not accept the party platform in full, nor will any candidates be indorsed save those which are to be nominated in this week's convention.

J. S. Coxey, of Ohio, organizer of Coxey's "army," which marched on Washington several years ago, is slated for temporary chairman of the convention.

Unless present plans miscarry Thomas Watson, of Georgia, the standard-bearer of the populist party in 1904, will be nominated for president.

The paramount plank of the platform will be devoted to the money question. This will declare in effect that the issuing of money is a function of government that should never be delegated to corporations or individuals; that all money should be issued by the government in such quantity as shall maintain stability in prices; all money to be full legal tender, none of which shall be a debt redeemable in other money. The demand will also be made that the government shall make loans direct to the people and at a lower rate of interest.

Other planks in the platform will be:

All public lands to be held for actual settlers and not to be subject to speculation or alien ownership.

Government ownership of railways and all other public utilities of national scope.

Municipal ownership.

Graduated income tax.

Establishment of postal savings banks and of the parcels post.

Initiative and referendum and the vesting in the people of the power to recall any official who disregards the wishes or instructions of his constituents.

Jay W. Forrest, of Albany, N. Y., chairman of the national provisional committee, issued the following statement last night:

"The men who in 1896 and 1900 made the fight for William J. Bryan, the men who were in the forefront and on the firing line, were populists. These men were forsaken by Bryan in 1904, at the St. Louis convention, and the 'ido's' of Parker, the gold-standard candidate, became the ideals of Bryan. Bryan lost his opportunity in that convention. Bolt was in the air. The old Bryan guard, loyal and steadfast for eight years, awaited the word from their leader; but that leader was found making speeches every day for Alton B. Parker, the gold standard candidate. In 1905 we took up the work of organizing the radical forces for 1908, and success far beyond our expectations has been achieved, and today we have an organization of at least five men in every county in the United States ready for the fight. Today there is no such thing as a working militant democratic organization in any state in the union outside of the solid South and New York city."

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Summons and complaint in a suit for $100,000, brought by Miss Florence R. Schenck, against Charles H. Wilson, manager of Alfred G. Vanderbilt's string of racing horses, were filed yesterday by David Welch, of New York, counsel for Miss Schenck, in the county clerk's office. Miss Schenck, who is under age, is suing through her guardian, Milton A. Willment, who was appointed by the court on December 31, last.

Miss Schenck charges that Wilson, under a promise of marriage, lured her away from her home at Norfolk, Va., in October, 1906, following which he took her to New York, where they lived together as husband and wife. Subsequently they went to London, where Wilson had charge of Mr. Vanderbilt's horses at the International Horse Show in that city June last. Returning to New York, Miss Schenck said, she discovered that Wilson was already married.

The complaint sets forth that on October 27, 1906, Miss Schenck promised to marry Wilson, after he had proposed to her.

"October 28, 1906," the complaint says, "the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, and relying on his promise to marry her, accompanied him to Washington, D. C., to be married. Arriving there, the defendant then and there failed to marry the plaintiff, although she was ready and willing to marry the defendant. But the defendant requested her to accompany him to the city of New York and promised that if she would accompany him there he would marry her on their arrival. She agreed to the postponement, believing he would carry out his promise. On arriving in New York the defendant refused and failed to marry her."

Volcano Active.

New Orleans, April 1.—Reports of the sudden outburst of a nameless and hitherto supposedly extinct volcano overlooking the important Guatemalan city of San Felipe has caused great uneasiness here, several New Orleans firms having extensive interests in plantations in the district. So much damage has been done in the Guatemalan interior by earthquakes that the fear is doubled at the present outlook. It is believed the inhabitants in the vicinity of the peak have had too much experience with the neighboring volcano of Santa Maria to run unnecessary risks from the present eruption but enormous property loss is apprehended. Means of communication into the imperilled district is so slow that no details have reached here but several of the interested firms will probably send representatives to San Felipe to investigate.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APR. 1, 1908.

A PROPOSITION by Representative Dalzell to make it a felony to say anything reflecting upon the solvency and stability of a national bank, or to make any statement which might lead to suspicion of the bank's solvency, and thereby cause a run, is under consideration by the banking and currency committee of the House. Mr. Dalzell's bill is based upon the assumption that banks, unrestricted and so conducted that the money of depositors is placed at the disposal of Wall street gambling to an extent that brings about currency stringency, should be allowed to go their way free from the criticism of reflection upon their management, which might destroy public confidence in their operations. It is an assumption that if the public, after being made a victim of by all manner of illegal combinations, will unreasonably permit the banks to tie up the public money in doubtful speculations, from which the public can obtain no return, and still refrain from uttering any complaints, the stability of national prosperity will be assured. The strangest thing about the Dalzell bill, says the Philadelphia North American, is that it reflects the opinions of its author. It also reflects the opinions of a great many other members of Congress and representatives generally of financial and gambling interests, for they are all agreed that if the public could only be prevented from protesting every time it is a victim of false pretense or sharp practice or open swindling or barefaced robbery, there would never be any trouble. Mr. Dalzell would prevent one man from telling another that the bank in which they both have their money is shaky, and that the man informed had better save himself, even if the statement was absolutely true. Under the Dalzell law, the man possessing accurate information of the bank's condition, and knowing, too, possibly, that the officers and directors were squandering recklessly the funds of the depositors in an effort to bolster up the price of stocks which they had themselves issued, would be required to hold his tongue and let the rascality go on until the crash came.

IN THE presence of closed factories and of demands of workingmen out of employment the assembled federal officeholders in Illinois once more proclaimed on Thursday the "success" of the tariff in promoting the prosperity of the country. There can be no question as to the prosperity of these government pap-eaters. Their salaries have undergone no loss, and if the republican politicians have luck in once more cheating the people in regard to the success of the tariff they may rejoice in a continuation of the same prosperity, no matter how much the millions of other people may suffer from this system of spoliation and iniquity.

JUDGE HARMON, in his speech in Kansas City Monday night, speaking of hard times throughout the country, said: "Republicans say it was the Boer war that brought on the trouble, the Japanese war, the earthquake—anything you please but themselves. It is enough for us that it certainly was not the democrats. And when they say it was not themselves, they confess that they have been humbugging the people all these years." And that is exactly what they have been doing.

AFTER a long debate on the question of home rule for Ireland, the House of Commons Monday night adopted by a vote of 313 to 157 a resolution moved by John E. Redmond, the nationalist leader, that "in the opinion of this House a solution of this problem can only be attained by giving the Irish people legislative and executive control of all purely Irish affairs," after the resolution had been amended by adding the words "all subject to the supreme authority of the imperial parliament.

ATTORNEY GENERAL JACKSON, of New York, called the presentment handed up against him on Monday by the March grand jury "a lying, dirty, cowardly, contemptible trick." Mr. Jackson must have been real mad.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., April 1.

Senator Foraker today reported adversely from the military affairs committee the Warner and Foraker bills for the re-enlistment and reinstatement of the negro soldiers who were dismissed without honor for alleged participation in the rioting in Brownsville, Tex. He gave notice that they would be called up for action at an early date. Senator Warren presented a minority report favoring the Warner bill. Foraker said no member of the committee has changed his views since the original Brownsville reports were made on March 11. It was impossible to obtain a majority report for either the Foraker or Warner bills.

Setting forth at great length the "impropriety" of selecting Taft delegates, the Foraker National League, composed of leading colored republicans, has issued a call to southern republicans to work for the nomination of Senator Foraker for president. H. C. Smith, editor of the Cleveland, O., Gazette, is president of the league, which has established headquarters here.

The new battleship Idaho was placed in commission today at the League Island navy yard with Capt. S. B. H. Diehl, in command.

The Venezuelan controversy was not considered by the Senate committee on foreign relations at its meeting today.

The battleship Connecticut with Rear Admiral Evans on board, arrived at Sandiego, Cal., according to a dispatch to the Navy Department.

Secretary Taft left Washington today for a ten day's tour in the west. He will first visit Columbus, where tomorrow he will address the local board of trade. Friday he is due in Chicago to speak before the International Union.

The House committee on banking and currency decided today to hold public hearings on the Aldrich currency bill from April 8 to 15.

With the solemn observance of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, the 124th conference of the Baltinore conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened here this morning. More than 250 Methodist ministers are in attendance, together with a large number of lay delegates and other church workers. The Baltimore conference is the oldest in Methodism. Bishop Cranston will preside at all sessions. Organization of the meeting was effected at the morning session.

After nearly four years delay, the Hyde-Benson-Dimond-Schneider land fraud cases were called for trial today before Justice Stafford of the Criminal Court here. The charge upon which the defendants were brought to this jurisdiction after bitter preliminary legal contests in the State courts of California and the United States Supreme Court, is conspiracy to defraud the United States out of valuable tracts of public lands in the west. The trial will continue probably for three months. The case has already cost the government much money.

The republicans are having difficulty in securing a leader in the House to champion the Aldrich currency bill. None of the big leaders regards himself as fit. Mr. Payne admits that what he knows about currency could be told in a few words; Mr. Dalzell never got away from the study of the tariff long enough to learn about finance; Mr. Sherman is in the hospital; and Mr. Tawney is busy with "appropriations." Anyhow it might not be altogether popular to go into the next election with the tag, "father of a Wall street measure," hanging to one's coat tail.

The general arbitration treaty which was adopted at the last meeting of the International Peace Conference at The Hague, was today reported favorably from the Senate committee on foreign relations. This treaty provides for the submission of all international disputes, which do not involve questions of national honor, to arbitration.

The Sterling employer's liability bill, amended in some particulars, will probably be favorably reported to the House on Friday. The committee today agreed to the amendments it desired to make on the bill, and, as so amended, the bill will be reintroduced.

That Representative Lilley, of Connecticut, author of the charges of corruption of Congress by the Electric Boat Company, expects this special committee to report adversely on his charges, was told to the committee today by Franklin H. Taylor, of Waterbury, Conn., a manufacturer of materials for submarines. If the adverse report is made, Lilley will take the matter to the floor of the House, according to what Taylor testified Lilley told him in Connecticut a week ago.

Senator Bourne, of Oregon, who has been predicting for several months that President Roosevelt will be forced to run again, called at the White House today and repeated his predictions with added emphasis. "I have nothing against Secretary Taft," said Bourne, "for I think he is a big man mentally as well as physically. But before the convention meets the leaders of the republican party are bound to come to the conclusion that it will be a waste of time to nominate him. They will want to nominate the man that can win and Roosevelt is the only man. Taft cannot get 10 per cent. of the labor vote or 10 per cent. of the colored vote and he must have both to win."

Frederick W. Cauldwell, Vice Consul General at Berlin, who was one of the guests at a dinner party to whom Kaiser Wilhelm made the remark that he was angry at President Roosevelt because he was taking Ambassador Tower away from Germany, reported to the State Department today. Mr. Cauldwell said he had no knowledge of the later developments in the Hill-Tower episode. He regarded the kaiser's remark as a mere pleasantry, and intended as a compliment to Ambassador Tower.

The House committee on banking and currency today decided to hold hearings on the Aldrich currency bill April 8—15. Invitation is extended to boards of trade, banking associations, other organizations and individuals to appear before it to express their opinions on the bill and on amendments that members of the committee were asked to suggest at once.

WEDDING.

Miss Annie M. Bevan, sister-in-law of United States Senator Isidor Rayner, will be married today to Mr. Addison T. Dishman, of Spokane, Wash. The ceremony will take place at the home of her brother, Justice Richard A Bevan, at Arlington. Mr. Dishman was born in King George county. Miss Bevan was born in Baltimore county, Md, but her parents were originally from Virginia.—[Baltimore Sun.

CONFERENCES.

The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, met in Bates Memorial Church at Snow Hill, Md., today. It has 294 appointments, 390 churches and 105 parsonages.

The one hundredth and twenty-fourth session of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met in Hamlin Church, Washington this morning. Bishop Earl Cranston will preside at the conference.

Building Inspector Preston told the Baltimore City Council committee on public institutions yesterday afternoon that if he were to go to work on the public school buildings in the city under the strict letter of the law half of them would be torn down.

News of the Day.

Great Britain's volunteer army has ceased to exist and a territorial army takes it place.

Two hundred and fifty thousand coal miners quit work yesterday pending the signing of a new wage scale.

The Senate committee yesterday voted down both the Warner and the Foraker bills providing for the reinstatement of the negro soldiers discharged on account of the Brownsville riot.

The Washington police have been asked to arrest Robert and Isaac Ferguson, both negroes, father and son. They are wanted in Alexandria county, for assault with intent to kill.

Unable to secure the consent of her family to her contemplated marriage to Prince Helie de Sagan, Mme. Anna Gould will shortly return to Paris. De Sagan will precede her leaving on April 9.

The democratic committee of the District of Columbia last night adopted resolutions warmly indorsing the candidacy of W. J. Bryan for president. The resolutions were adopted at a large and enthusiastic meeting.

With $3,000,000 worth of orders on hand for tubines, gas engine, and with a cash balance of $800,000, Judge Young, of the United States court, at Pittsburg, Pa., late yesterday, granted a petition discharging the receivers of the Westinghouse Machine Company.

The receivership for the Westinghouse Machine Company, created last October, at the beginning of the financial depression, was vacated yesterday by Judge James S. Young, of the United States Circuit Court, at Pittsburg, on petition of the company and the receivers.

The Pike county Bank and Trust Company of McComb City, Miss., was today placed in the hands of George Bauer, of this city, and Thad. Lampton, of Magnolia, as receivers. Depression in the lumber industry and curtailment of working hours in the railroad shops there are responsible for the failure.

The Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia yesterday, in an opinion by Chief Justice Shepard, affirmed the judgment of the Police Court, which convicted Louis R. Pfeiffer of violating the section of the code forbidding the making of handbooks in the District of Columbia. Pfeiffer was sentenced by Judge Kimball to pay $500 fine and serve ninety days in jail.

In an interview in Columbia, S. C., yesterday, Senator Tillman said: "If the republicans nominate Taft for president at the June convention, Bryan will undoubtedly be named by the democrats, and I think he will win. But on the other hand, if the republicans lock up the convention and stampede it for Roosevelt, and nominate him, I do not think that the democrats can put Bryan forward."

Absolute prohibition in the District of Columbia, it now seems probable, will not be recommended by the District Commissioners. Althought the three commissioners have not yet discussed, as a board, bills now before Congress calling for prohibition in various forms, it is understood that the individual views of the members of the board are that absolute prohibition is not wanted by the people of the District.

The issue between a delegation to the republican national convention pledged to the nomination of Secretary Taft and a delegation unpledged was fought out at the primary elections for delegates to congressional district conventions and to the State convention throughout Massachusetts last night. The result is a clear victory for Senator Crane's attitude in favor of a delegation free from instructions or "preferences."

James Mahon, brother of John J. Mahon, the democratic organization leader of Baltimore city, was shot and killed last night in front of a hotel opposite the city hall by William Harig, a former democratic politician. James Mahon had been interested in certain saloons and pool rooms which recently fell under the ban of the police, and it is said Harig was responsible for a recent raid. Harig was arrested.

DEATH OF JOSEPH HOWARD.

Joseph Howard, jr., died last night at his apartments in the Hotel Nevada, New York, at the age of seventy-five years. He was widely known as a versatile newspaper writer, having served at one time or another on most of the large dailies in the country. Howard gained a kind of fame when in 1864, he concocted a bogus proclamation of President Lincoln, calling for 500,000 more troops. The fake was published by the New York Journal of Commerce and the New York World, both of which papers were seized by the government and their publication suspended. When authorship of the hoax was discovered, Howard was arrested and locked up in Fort Lafayette. Henry Ward Beecher and Howard's father, who was a deacon in Beecher's church, succeeded in persuading President Lincoln to release Howard.

NEW RIFLES.

Adjutant General Anderson has made a requisition on the chief of ordnance for 2,100 Springfield rifles, in accordance with the intention of the Ordnance Department to supply the militia of the United States with the most approved weapons.

It is expected that the rifles will be shipped to Virginia within sixty days.

The new gun is the best weapon of its class in the world. It weighs but little over eight pounds and shoots a sharp-pointed bullet which weighs 150 grains, while the powder charge weighs about 50 grains.

The muzzle velocity of the .30-caliber ball cartridge is 2,700 feet per second and the penetration tests show that nothing apparently stops the dreadful projectile. The figures in this connection seem almost incredible.

Suicide of a Photographer.

Philadelphia, April 1.—The body of W. C. Withers, a prominent Chestnut street photographer, was found today in his studio under circumstances the police say indicate suicide. An empty bottle, said to have contained poison, was near the body which lay on a couch. No motive for suicide is known, however. Withers lived with his family at Laurel Springs, N. J.

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Gentlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bottle of Kodol and the benefit I received all the gold in Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly, C. N. Cornell, Roding, Ga., Aug. 27, 1906." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Rebecca B. Haymaker, wife of George W. Haymaker, died in Winchester, yesterday, aged sixty years.

The Roanoke shops of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company yesterday discharged 800 men, many of whom have been in the employ of the shops for a long time.

Clara Billings Shepard, wife of Prof. George O. Shepard, proprietor of the Winchester Inn Hotel, died at her home in Winchester yesterday, aged sixty years. She was the daughter of the late Rev. Silas Billings.

Captain Carter Braxton, of Staunton, adjutant of the Seventieth regiment, has tendered his resignation to Governor Swanson and it has been accepted. Captain Braxton has retired from the militia of the State to devote his time to other work.

An early morning fire in Richmond, yesterday in the lumber yard of W. S. Gunn & Co. for a time seriously threatened St. Luke's Hospital, in the rear of which the lumber yards are located. There was considerable excitement among the inmates of the hospital on account of the conflagration, which was fortunately confined to the lumber yard property, doing damage amounting to $10,000. The fire was in the very heart of the fashionable residential section.

The Tenth district republican convention in Staunton yesterday indorsed the administration, the two Slemps and indorsed Taft for president. Col. S. Brown Allen, United States Marshal of the Western district, and C. Bascomb Slemp were indorsed for delegates-at-large to Chicago. R. A. Fulmiler, Staunton's postmaster, and William Jennings, of Rockbridge, were named as district delegates to Chicago. William C. Franklin, of Appomattox, was nominated to Congress, and A. C. Garnett, of Buckingham, was named as elector.

Miss Carrie Jenkins, twenty-two years old, of 1719 Thirteenth street, Washington, was robbed of her pocketbook at 8:30 o'clock last night, within a block of her home, after being brutally attacked by a negro. The man grabbed Miss Jenkins by the throat as she passed an alley on Riggs street, only half a block from her home on Thirteenth street. He knocked her to the ground and, still clutching her throat, beat her head against the sidewalk until she was all but unconscious. He then wrenched her purse, containing her month's salary, minus a few dollars, from her hand, and ran through an alley.

GOVERNOR'S APPOINTMENTS.

Governor Swanson yesterday announced the appointment for various boards and commissions provided for by the last general assembly which created new trusts.

The governor also named Professor W. D. Saunders, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Blackburg, to be dairy inspector and food commissioner. The appointee has announced that he will accept the position. The office pays a salary of $2,500 a year. Professor Saunders is a brother to Congressman E. W. Saunders, of the Fifth district, and is said to be particularly fitted for the position.

Following is a full list of the appointees:

FULFILLMENT OF A DREAM.

Separated from her son, William C. Cooper, of New York, by nearly 100 miles, Mrs. Ella Cooper, of Philadelphia, on Sunday night dreamed she saw him killed by an elevated train. So vivid was the mother's dream that she hurried to New York. Her route across the town from the Pennsylvania Railroad ferry lay through west Twenty-third street. By a remarkable coincidence, she reached Seventh avenue a few seconds after her son had been knocked down and seriously injured by an east bound trolley car. From the window of the car in which she was seated she recognized the face of the man lying on the ground surrounded by a large crowd. She jumped from the car and rushed to his side. When he regained consciousness, his mother's face was the first thing that met his gaze. How badly young Cooper is injured it will be impossible to tell for several days.

WILL NOT BUY JAMESTOWN.

An adverse report was made by the House committee on naval affairs yesterday on the bill authorizing the government to purchase the property of the Jamestown Exposition Company, and convert it into a naval station. The measure carried an appropriation of $3,500,000. Upon a motion to report the bill favorably, only one vote was cast in the affirmative.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Indiana Republicans.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—That the leaders of the republican party in Indiana have gone "temperance mad" is the charge of the liberal party who are dissatisfied with the success of the reform element in getting a local option plank in the State platform.

Senator A. J. Beveridge joined hands with Vice President Fairbanks in a plan for revision of the tariff immediately after the coming election. Both profess to believe that the President will yet decide on a special immediately after the election.

The convention will not make nominations until tomorrow.

Here are the planks of the platform: Endorsement of President Theodore Roosevelt's administration; endorsement of the state administration; local option with the county, as a unit; no interference with present temperance laws; revision of the tariff along protective lines by a special session of Congress after the election, declaring for notice before injunction is issued against labor and trial for contempt of injunction before a different judge; codification of laws governing corporations; child labor legislation within limits; endorsing the candidacy of Charles W. Fairbanks for president; opposing contributions by corporations to the campaign; progressive programme in labor legislation.

Electric Cannon.

London, April 1.—Government ordnance experts have reported confirming the claim by W. S. Simpson, a well-known, metallurgist, that the latter has invented an electric cannon capable of throwing a projectile 300 miles.

"The gun will revolutionize naval construction," says Col. Maude, one of the foremost of the authorities engaged in the still pending tests of the weapon. "It will force the abandonment of armor and make speed the prime requisite in fighting vessels. Such is its simplicity of construction that the resources of any ordinary machine shop are sufficient for its construction. With it Paris could be bombarded from the English coast."

"It is a fact that the gun represents as great an advance over others in use today," supplements Inventor Simpson, "as the electric light represents over the candle. It is not only simple in construction, but can be controlled with the greatest ease. It is cheaper than existing artillery and will last 100 times longer."

The weapon develops a velocity of 30,000 feet per second, and the experts also support Simpson's assertion that it will discharge 50 shells of 500 pounds each per minute. It will likewise throw one projectile a long and short distance. The basic force being electricity, the discharge is without flash, smoke or recoil.

Mme. Gould.

New York, April 1.—Mme Gould will base her demand for sole possession of the entire fortune left her by her father, the late Jay Gould, on the ground that she has already complied with the terms of his will. She does not dispute the clause requiring her, like her brother and sisters, to obtain the entire family's consent to her marriage on penalty of forfeiture of one-half her estate. But this consent was given to her marriage to Count Boni de Castellane.

Mme. Gould is still ill in her apartments at the St. Regis suffering from nervous breakdown, bronchitis and stomach troubles.

That Mme. Gould and the prince will marry is not stated in so many words, but it is plainly implied. "Will the marriage take place in New York?" the prince was asked. "It certainly will not," was the reply.

Rioting in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 1.—A riot of unemployed occurred today about the site of Hammerstein's new opera house. Several thousand men fought desperately in the street until repealed police charges scattered them. Many were more or less seriously hurt. The police were compelled to remain on guard to prevent a fresh outbreak. The contractors on the opera house had advertised for men and about 3,000 had gathered. Negroes made up the greater part of the throng. While the crowd was awaiting the contractors' orders a party of about 100 Italians arrived on the scene. Those first on the ground feared the new arrivals would secure many of the vacant places. A quarrel began and then a desperate fight ensued.

Fight a Draw.

San Francisco, April 1.—With both men claiming that they were robbed and their partisans emphasizing that claim, fight fans here today are enthusiastic in declaring the decision of Referee Smith of a draw at the end of the 15-round battle between Nelson and Attell last night to have been the only justifiable one. It was a red-hot slashing fight from the start. The "battling Dane" showed all of his old-time aggressiveness and withstood terrible punishment, while Attell brought into play all of his elusive tactics to worry the Illinois champion.

Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Idle Miners.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—From reports to headquarters of the United Mine Workers this morning it seems that 250,000 men are today taking their enforced vacation of several years. The suspension may last several months. Early today John Mitchell, at a banquet of the national executive board given for the retiring officers, relinquished his office to Thomas L. Lewis, now president. If there was any factional feeling between them it was not shown at the banquet.

Steamer Floated.

Eastport, N. Y., April 1.—The steamer Carolina, from Trieste, which grounded on the outer bar at 9 o'clock last night was successfully floated today. A low surf was running at the time the steamer struck and it is believed she sustained practically no damage. None of the ten passengers were removed from the steamer. The vessel proceeded to the city in tow of a tug.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 1.—There was hurried covering of shorts in the active speculative issues this morning, that forced sharp gains in the first few minutes and for a time gave the market an exceedingly strong tone. The sharp recovery was based on the new issue of Erie note half been approved by the public service commission, and a belief that notes maturing on April 8 would either be extended or paid off in cash.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, April 1.

SENATE.

Senator Foraker reported adversely from the military affairs committee the Warner and Foraker bills for the re-enlistment and re-instatement of the negro soldiers who were dismissed without honor for alleged participation in the rioting in Brownsville, Texas.

Mr. Foraker said he would not move indefinite postponement, as is usual, but requested that they be placed on the calendar. He gave notice that they would be called up for action at an early date.

Mr. Warren presented a minority report favorable to the Warner bill. It was signed by Messrs. Warren, Lodge, Warner and Dupont. A further report was signed by Senator Scott.

Mr. Foraker said no member of the committee has changed his views since the orginal Brownsville reports were made on March 11. It was impossible to obtain a majority report for either the Foraker or the Warner bill. Both, he said, are on an equal footing, being reported adversely.

Mr. Scott explained his individual report, saying he favored a bill that would do the negro soldiers justice.

The Senate today passed a bill repealing section 3480 of the revised statutes, which prohibited the payment of any claim against the United States originating before the civil war to any one who did not prove his loyalty to the United States during that war. The original report, prepared by the late Senator Pettus, was read.

The administration bill to amend the anti-trust laws, which had endorsed by the civic federation and which was introduced in the House recently by Representative Hepburn, was today offered by Senator Warner. An amendment is made in that section of the bill where it is provided that there will be no section of the right of employers to strike, or of employees to discharge workmen "for any cause," so as to make it read "for any purpose not unlawful at common law."

HOUSE.

With this statement Representative Caulfield reported from the House committee on the judiciary a resolution to ask the department how many detectives it has employed to clean out peonage in Florida, how much it cost, and how much Mary Quackenboss, special attorney of the Department of Justice, received for her work in Florida. The report was to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. Caulfield said the republican administration had carried on fight against peonage in the interest of labor. "That is a policy we haven't stolen from the democratic party, either," he shouted.

Representative Clark replied in an attack on Attorney General Bonaparte, claiming he was no lawyer, referred to Assistant General as a "dime novel hero," and Mrs. Quackenboss as "that female."

The resolution was tabled.

SENATOR IN A FIGHT.

United States Senator Jefferson Davis and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Thomas Helm became involved in an altercation on the street in Little Rock, Ark., yesterday. Helm, it is said, struck Davis and the latter then went into his office. Davis soon reappeared and bystanders claim that he was looking for Helm. Helm says that Davis made an insulting remark to him, which he resented with several blows.

Senator Davis was arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with carrying a revolver on the streets with murderous intent. The case was docketed in police court. In a statement Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Helm says that he met Davis on the street and accosted him, the latter, he alleges, having slandered him during the recent State campaign, repeating false charges concerning the celebrated Hartley case.

Helm says he struck Davis twice in the face and subsequently chased him into his office. He then picked up Davis's cane and went to his own office. The cane was presented to Davis by the Arkansas legislature and the Senator has carried it though four State campaigns. It is said to be the same cane Davis used in striking Associate Justice Wood on a public platform at Hope, Ark., four years ago.

Senator Davis made the following statement:

"Helm attacked me from the rear as I was going to my office, using a loaded bat, which was attached to his wrist by thongs of leather. This is an attack such as I have warned the people of Arkansas would be made by political rings of Little Rock to further their desires. Helm simply acted under instructions of his superior."

Senator Davis, it is alleged, charged in the recent campaign that Helm received $1,000 when Charles Hartley, of New Albany, Ind., was robbed in Little Rock last year of $6,000.

Senator Davis was fined $25 in Police Court at Little Rock, Ark., today under charge of disturbing the peace. There is danger of more fighting, as the situation is strained to the breaking point.

BUCKET SHOPS.

That a "bucket-shop" is setting up and maintaining a gaming table, and is in violation of the code of the District of Columbia, was the verdict of the jury yesterday in the case of Percy Wade, of Wade & Hedges, stock brokers, who has been on trial for a week in Criminal Court No. 2. It took the jury twenty minutes to fine Mr. Wade guilty. Justice Barnard finished his charge at ten minutes after 3 o'clock, and at 3:30 o'clock the jury returned with its verdict. Motion for a new trial will be filed, and if it is denied, the case will be carried to the Court of Appeals. Wade was released on the bond furnished by him following the return of the indictment.

We acknowledge the receipt of "Gen. Turner Ashby, the Centaur of the South," a book recently written by Mr. Clarence Thomas, of Middleburg, Va. This military sketch is dedicated to Ashby and his men and is an important contribution to the history of the civil war. Mr. Thomas is the first to put into definite form the biography of this romantic hero of the Confederacy. He brings out graphically Ashby's points as a soldier and shows that he was a man who was able to command armies. As the record of a wonderful career and as a delightful biography it should be in every library in the southland.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS.

The 124th annual conference of the Baltimore Methodist Episcopal Church South, which met in Roanoke a week ago, adjourned yesterday to meet next year at Central Church, Baltimore. The conference at the morning session appointed Rev. E. V. Regester, now presiding elder of the Washington district, as editor of the Baltimore Southern Methodist, in connection with his other duties in the district. He is to serve the paper without monetary compensation. Rev. W. H. Best, of Reisterstown, Md., was chosen as conference missionary secretary, and is to devote his whole time to that field.

The conference indorsed the movement to build a central representative church at Washington, and pledges itself to provide $25,000 for the work, the estimated cost of which will be $275,000.

An announcement was made by the board of extension work that T. T. Fishburne, a preacher-business man of Roanoke, had given $10,000 to the loan fund of that society, to be used for building churches in foreign fields. The treasurer of the mission board announced that the conference had raised for the year more than $30,000 for missions.

The appointments for the Washington district are: E. V. Regester, presiding elder; Mount Vernon, J. H. Wells; Epworth, J. W. Emery; Marvin, S. K. Cockrell; St. Paul, W. E. Henry; Calvary, W. H. Ballenger; Del Ray, O. C. Beale; Clarendon, J. J. Rives; Alexandria, O. D. Bulls; Fredericksburg, W. L. Dolly; Falls Church, J. L. Kibler; Leesburg, W. D. Keene; Loudoun, J. S. Keene and D. F. Deutaler; Middleburg, J. H. Baltzly; Millaboro, W. B. Dorsey; Hamilton, S. V. Hildebrande; Warrenton, P. W. Jeffreys; Marshall, O. W. Lusby; Fairfax, T. A. Strother; Sterling, G. W. Gaither and Elmer Lamber; Occoquan, O. Sydenstricker; Fauquier, O. T. Burgess; Remington, J. H. Davidson; Dudley, Homer Welch; Manassas, W. T. Gover; Stafford, O. M. Sarver; Morrisville, M. P. Weikle; Prince William, A. Vandevander.

Among the appointments in the Winchester district are the following: George T. Tyler, presiding elder. Winchester, D. H. Kerr; Frederick, C. L. Potter; Stephens City, William Stevens; Middletown, J. P. Stump; Strasburg, A. Knox; Woodstock, H. M. Canter; Woodstock Mission, W. R. Hardesty; Edinburg, T. G. Nevitt; Front Royal and Riverton, J. H. Light; Warren, N. N. Hall; Linden, C. W. Stump; Page, H. M. Strickler; White Post, F. E. Hammond and one to be supplied.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The President yesterday transmitted to the Senate a message, correspondence and other material bearing upon the Venezuelan situation and steps will be taken to press the American claims.

Among the number of bills which passed were one to make uniform the warehouse receipts law in the District of Columbia and one making it illegal to stamp any article inspected under the pure food law "guaranteed by the United States government."

Senator Heyburn, after an extended debate, served notice of a filibuster on a bill to allow a dam to be constructed over a western river.

The House further considered the agricultural appropriation bill in committee of the whole.

In spite of strong opposition, the House adopted the appropriation for the Forestry Bureau.

TWO WOMEN ARRESTED.

About two weeks ago Adeline L. Robinson and Lillian Talbot, two young women, came to this city and secured board at a public house. The fact that they remained out at times until midnight caused the proprietor to make inquiries concerning them, and he finally concluded to notify the couple that they must seek other quarters. Being unable to pay their board bill, the trunks of the women were retained by the proprietor of the house. The young women later obtained quarters in the Braddock House, and during the time they have been there they have, it is said, made visits down the electric railway, often returning late at night. They made the acquaintance of a number of Alexandria youths, some of whom, it is alleged, followed them to the Braddock House at night. Yesterday Officers Nicholson and Arrington took the couple in custody and they were conducted before the Police Court this morning. One of the women said she was from Baltimore and the other from Norfolk. They claimed to be following a professional calling, and the one from Norfolk said she was waiting to hear from her brother. They also said they had an engagement with the manager of a Washington theatre today and expected to get employment. They were released upon promising to leave for Washington today.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

The Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp held a meeting yesterday afternoon in Confederate Veterans' Building which was largely attended and when it was decided to hold a sale of fancy articles, Easter novelties, home made cakes and caramels in the building, on the afternoon of April 23rd, to be followed by a musical entertainment in the evening by the most popular talent of the town. The proceeds of this sale and entertainment will be used in the painting of the exterior of Confederate Veterans' Building. Tickets are now on sale by the members of the organization and the affair promises to be a success in every particular.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late John F. Tackett took place this evening from his residence on south St. Asaph street and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends of the deceased. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips and Rev. S. A. Wallis and the interment was in the family lot in St. Paul's cemetery. The pallbearers were Dr. Wm. M. Smith, Capt. Herbert Bryant and Messrs. G. Wm. Ramsay, H. R. Burke, John M. Johnson, Albert Bryan, Hubert Snowden, Laurence Stabler, J. T. Johnson, Edward L. Daingerfield, Morgan H. Beach and Wm. L. Marbury, the latter of Baltimore.

ENFORCING THE BYRD LAW.

Among the cases before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning was that of a young man who has often faced that tribunal for being drunk on the streets. He had been taken up yesterday by Officer Garvey on the same chronic charge. The justice asked him where he procured his liquor, and after a slight hesitation the prisoner said he bought it at a certain grocery and liquor store. The accused was sent to jail for 30 days in default of the payment of a fine of $10 and a warrant was issued for the arrest of the storekeeper who had furnished him with the liquor.

CONCERT.

The concert given last night in the Young People's Building under the auspices of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was a success both artistically and financially. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of Miss Blanche Rotchford, Mrs. George E. Warfield, Mrs. R. S. Cleveland, and Miss Annie Henderson. Miss Rotchford had charge of the musical programme, and every number was a treat.

MORE DISCHARGES.

Two hundred merchanics, mostly machinists, employed at the Washington navy yard, were yesterday furloughed for ninety days, beginning with the expiration of their duties last night. The men feel that in most instances the furlough means discharge. Despite the fact that Congress on Monday appropriated $2,000,000 to the navy yards under the urgent deficiency clause, the men were laid off.

THE FISHING SEASON.

Shad are appearing in the upper river, but not as yet in large numbers. The gillers at times take as many as a dozen at a "drift" but they often catch but two or three at a "layout." Herring are becoming more plentiful, as are also pan fish—small rock, black bass, white and yellow perch, &c. Prices, however, show no material changes.

CONDITIONAL PARDON.

Governor Swanson has granted a conditional pardon to George Griffin, who was convicted last September of attempting to set fire to a house on Princess street, near Lee, and sentenced to serve one year in jail. His term would not have expired until the 13th of September.

YOUNG MEN'S SENATE.

The Young Men's Senate will hold an open session tomorrow evening beginning at 8 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. No charge; no collection.

CORRECTION.

George H. Hockman, who shot several men in Fairfax county on Monday, committed the act at Wellington, and not at the Dyke, as was stated yesterday.

PLEASANT MEETING.

A very pleasant meeting took place at the residence of Rev. Richard L. Carne, yesterday morning, when Rev. R. W. Springer, whom he had not seen for many years, suddenly entered, and a long conversation took place between them. While his father was a member of Congress and his mother was writing books, he was sent to St. John's Academy, which Father Carne kept so long, and passed there the years between thirteen and seventeen when he graduated with great credit, receiving the highest honors and delivering the valedictory with great applause. He became a chaplain in the United States army and was sent to various places, being now stationed at New York. They met only once or twice in the many years, which followed. It may be well imagined that both rejoiced at the meeting, though of different faith, and that the few hours passed away in pleasant reminiscences of the past. It is not very probable that both will meet again, because of the advanced age of the former, and the likelihood that the latter may pass the rest of his days at a distance, but, if they should ever do so, it would be a joyful meeting indeed.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Harry Brown, charged with being drunk in the street, was fined $10, or given 30 days in jail.

Welford Jones, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed upon promising to abstain from the use of liquor in the future and resume work.

Adeline L. Robinson and Lillian Talbot, charged with having no visible means of support, were dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

NEW STORE.

As advertised in another column, R. Lee Field, the clothier, has removed to 612 King street, where he is displaying an entirely new line of men's furnishings, which he invites his patrons and the public generally to inspect. With two courteous salesmen, such as Mr. Field employs, and the record for proper representation of goods which the house enjoys, we bespeak for him increased prosperity in his more centrally located clothing store.

TURNER THROWS FIVE MEN.

At the Alexandria Social Club, last night, Joe Turner, of Washington, threw five men in forty-five minutes. Jack Smith, a boy from Fort Hunt, gave him the hardest tussle, but Turner finally threw him in seventeen minutes. Fred Lynch stayed thirteen minutes while Bothner was disposed of in seven and a half. Young Agas, of Richmond, was thrown in four and a half minutes, while Jack Rady stayed six minutes.

The Eighth District Committee.

At a meeting of the Congressional State Democratic Committee, for the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, held at the Prince William Hotel, in the town of Manassas, Virginia, on the 9th day of March, 1908, pursuant to a call issued by the chairman, the Hon. George S. Shackelford, there were present, the chairman, Col. Granville Gaines; R. T. Green, Gardner L. Boothe and Thos. H. Linn. The following resolutions was adopted:

Be it resolved by the Congressional Democratic Committee for the Eighth Congressional District of Virginia, that a primary election, for the democratic candidate for the United States House of Representatives, be held throughout said District on the 9th day of June, 1908, between sunrise and sunset of that day, at all established precincts or wards, and as near as possible in the usual voting places therein; be it further,

Resolved, that at said election all known white democrats and those who have never before voted, who shall declare themselves to be democrats, shall be allowed to vote, provided they will be qualified to vote at the next general election in November, 1908; be it further,

Resolved, that all candidates shall file a notice, in writing, of their candidacy, with Hon. George S. Shackelford, of Orange, Virginia, on or before April 7th, 1908; be it further,

Resolved, that each candidate shall pay to the said Hon. George S. Shackelford, on or before the 15th day of April, 1908, his pro rata share of $1,000, that being the estimate of total expenses of conducting the said primary election; be it further,

Resolved, that any sum remaining after the expenses of said election are paid, shall be returned pro rata to the various candidates; be it further,

Resolved, that this election shall be separate and independent and not held in connection with any other primary.

GEO. S. SHACKELFORD, Chairman.
THOS. H. LINN, Secretary.

...he fell asleep and when he awoke found them disposed of his chances in the coming campaign.

"What did Henry Clay go into politics for?" said one. "He had a good bit of land; he had a keen eye for stock. If he had stuck to stock raising he'd have been worth his fifty thousand. But now he doesn't own a dollar."

"And," the great Kentuckian used to add, "the worst of it was, every word of it was true."

It was characteristic of the man that at the next stopping place he hurried away and took another coach lest his critics should recognize him and be mortified at their unintentional rudeness.

Impertinent Lady Holland.

In "A Family Chronicle," a book of gossip, is a story about the fearful and wonderful Lady Holland which is comparatively unbackneyed.

She was at Lord Radnor's, and they could not get rid of her. Lord Radnor thought of pretending the house, but tried first what prayers of a Sunday evening would do. She was highly pleased (very gracious Lady Morley said, because she knew they longed to get rid of her) and said she would go down for prayers. Whether she was ill I do not know, but it seems she had to be carried downstairs and wrapped herself up in cloaks, etc. In the midst she called out for more cloaks, which were brought her. When she went up to the drawing room again she said to Lord Radnor (he having finished with the Lord's Prayer): "I liked that very much, that last prayer you read. I approve of it. It is a very nice one. Pray, whose is it?" Did any one ever hear such a thing? I cannot imagine why people should bear her impertinence.

Eight Points of the Law.

A correspondent signing himself "So-and-so" overheard some men—"evidently lawyers," he says—talking over a case recently when some such expression as this reached his ears:

"Well, he couldn't help winning. He had the eight points of the law in his favor."

Ever since he heard this "So-and-so" has been wondering what were the eight points referred to, and he asks me if I can enlighten him on the subject.

The eight points of the law, "So-and-so," are these: First, a good cause; second, a good purse; third, an honest and skillful solicitor; fourth, good evidence; fifth, able counsel; sixth, an upright judge; seventh, an intelligent jury; eighth, good luck.

It is well understood in forensic circles that if you have all these in your favor you stand a sporting chance of winning your case. But, on the other hand, of course you may lose.—London Standard.

Bonaparte as a Dreadhead.

Frederic Febvre publishes in the Paris Gaulois an interesting document preserved in the archives of the Theatre Francais. It runs as follows:

"Pass the citizen Bonaparte to this evening's performance of 'Manlius.'—Talma."

This shows, of course, that the Emperor Napoleon when he was only a lieutenant of artillery was very glad of "orders" for the theater. M. Febvre adds a story which he heard from Talma's son to the effect that the future ruler of France used to lie in wait for the tragedian in the galleries of the Palais Royal and that the tragedian used often to whisper to his companion: "The other way, if you don't mind. I see Bonaparte coming, and I'm afraid he'll ask me for seats."

Evidence Against Him.

"I am proud to say," said the man with the loud voice, "that I have never made a serious mistake in my life."

"But you are mistaken," said the mild mannered man with the scholarly stoop. "You have made one very serious mistake."

"I'd like to know where you get your authority for saying so."

"Your declaration is evidence that you have never tried to see yourself as others see you."—Exchange.

The Marvelous Resistance of Water.

If it were possible to impart to a sheet of water an inch in thickness sufficient rejocity, the most powerful bomb shells would be immediately stopped in their flight when they came into contact with it. It would offer the same resistance as the steel armor of the most modern battleship.—Strand Magazine.

The Law's Delay.

Betty—That case hasn't come on yet. Isn't the law's delay maddening? Cissie (absentmindedly)—Perfectly frightful! I've been six months getting that young barrister to propose.—London Opinion.

His Loss Our Gain.

Poet—I had a poem here, but while I was waiting for you I carelessly upset some ink over it, and I fear that I cannot remember it to rewrite it. Editor—That's good.—New York Press.

A Quick Switch.

Jack (studying geography)—Father, what is a strait? Father (reading the paper)—Five cards of a—that is, a narrow strip of water connecting two larger bodies.—Harper's Weekly.

FINANCIAL.

An investment you wish to make, rest assured the safest investment you can possibly make is to deposit your money in the Savings Department of this corporation where it will earn 3 per cent. interest compounded twice a year. Your principal will then be always at your command and cannot depreciate in value. You can start an account with this corporation for $1.00 or upwards. If you have other investments in view isn't it advisable to have your MONEY MAKING MONEY while you are deciding this matter. There's many a $1 or $5 bill spent unnecessarily because it is carried in the pocket, when a savings account would have discouraged or prevented the expenditure. A bank account is not only a convenience, but a great encourager of economy, so why not commence right and open an account with us today. We invite you to do so and promise courteous and liberal treatment consistent with sound banking methods.
